

Request to view items from Victoria University Archives

Request a research appointment to review specific records at the Victoria University Archives.

We encourage all researchers to make an Office Hours appointment to discuss their research BEFORE booking a research appointment. You can book an Office Hours appointment online. This is especially helpful if you are new to archival research.

* Required