Instruction Program

Electronic Classroom

The library’s bibliographic instruction facility is located on the third floor of the Pratt building.
See also: Services for Faculty, Instructors, and TAs.

Library instructors teach library research skills to students and provide training in the use of online catalogues, electronic and print resources including electronic periodical indexes, electronic journals, online reference tools and digital collections.

Students gain hands-on experience with a range of UTL's online resources.

Instructors create course specific guides to the Library's collections.

Schedule a Library Instruction Session

Professors and instructors are encouraged to contact colin [dot] deinhardt [at] vicu [dot] utoronto [dot] ca (Colin Deinhardt) (416-585-4569) to arrange for a library workshop tailored to course requirements.

Research & Writing Seminars

Each session in this suite of four interactive seminars integrates the learning of academic research and writing skills and is taught by a librarian in collaboration with a writing instructor. Sessions are scheduled during both semesters. To register and consult the schedule, please see the description of each workshop.
