

Researching Literary Criticism

Journal Databases & Digital Collections

MLA International Bibliography

The research tool is created by the Modern Language Association (MLA), an organization dedicated to the study and teaching of language and literature.

It includes book chapters, journal articles, reviews and other sources related to world literature. Publications on literary theory and criticism, dramatic arts (film, radio, television, theatre), and folklore can also be found in the index.

Literature Resource Centre

Includes critical and literary analysis, as well as biographical and contextual information.

Literature Criticism

A comprehensive, scholarly collection of books and articles pertaining to various authors, works, and periods in literature. It contains contemporary and historical analysis derived from books, scholarly journals, popular magazines, newspapers, and other types of publications.

Bibliographies

A bibliography is a list of the books of an author or publisher, or on a specific subject. A bibliography about a particular author lists books and articles which discuss his or her work.

Oxford Bibliographies

Oxford Bibliographies is a collection of discipline-based subject guides. Each guide lists annotated citations of books and articles about an author and his or her work.
